ORDER:

In the G.O. 1st read above, the Government have sanctioned the following supporting staff to each Mandal Legal Services Committee in the state:-

- (1) Typist-cum-Assistant - 1
- (2) Record Assistant - 1
- (3) Attender - 1

2. In the letter 3rd read above, the Member Secretary, Andhra Pradesh State legal Services Authority has further stated that there are 108 Mandal Legal Services Committees in the State and they have to fill up 108 posts of attenders from surplus pool in consultation with the Finance Department duly debiting the expenditure to the concerned Head of account mentioned in G.O.Ms.No.117, dated:28.6.1999. As per the directions of the then Hon'ble Executive Chairman, Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority, the Member Secretary has requested the Government to issue orders permitting the Member Secretary to fill up 108 posts of attenders for 108 Mandal Legal Services Committees instead of taking the candidates from surplus pool.

3. The Member Secretary, Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority had stated that consequent to the appointment of full time Secretaries to District Legal Services Authorities, the work load and activities of District Legal Services Authorities and Mandal Legal Services Committees is considerably increased. Secretaries, District Legal Services Authorities and Chairmen, Mandal Legal Services Committees have been organizing legal awareness camps covering nook and corner of the state to create awareness among target groups about their rights under various welfare legislations and benefits available to them under various welfare schemes of the Government.

4. The Legal Services Authorities in the State have formulated a positive plan of action under the caption "GIRI NYAYAM" for providing free and competent legal aid to Tribal and to protect the rights of Tribal through legal empowerment. The Legal Services Authorities in the State have launched "save the Child" programme to fulfill the following objectives :

- (1) To see that all the Children should go to School.
- (2) To eradicate Child Labour and Child Trafficking.
- (3) To disseminate the information on Child Rights in general and Right to education in particular.

5. The Mandal Legal Services Committees in the State have been regularly conducting activities and meetings to fulfill the objectives of the above programmes formulated by the Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority.

6. The Mandal Legal Services Committees in the State have been regularly organizing Lok Adalats for settlement of Pre-litigation and pending litigation cases. During the year 2007 1,00,314 cases have been settled through Lok Adalats. From those, it is clear that the Legal Services Authorities in the State have been working for the Welfare of target groups and to settle the disputes amicably. For effective functioning of the Mandal Legal Services Committees, the services of attender is necessary. As the District Collectors failed to allot the attenders from surplus pool, there is no other alternative except to permit this Authority to recruit the attender posts for Mandal Legal Services Committees for which the attenders are not provided from surplus pool. The table showing the Mandal Legal Services Committees for which the attenders are not allotted from surplus pool is mentioned in the Annexure.

7. The Member Secretary, was directed by the Hon'ble Executive Chairperson, Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority to request the Government to permit the Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority to fill up the posts of attenders for Mandal Legal Services Committee, for which the attenders are not allotted by surplus pool, by direct recruitment so as to enable the Mandal Legal Services Committees to function effectively to achieve the objectives of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.

8. The Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby accord permission to fill up 108 posts of attenders on outsourcing in the Mandal Legal Services Committees as shown in the Annexure appended to this order for which the attenders are not allotted by surplus pool, by direct recruitment so as to enable the Mandal Legal Services Committees to function effectively to achieve the objectives of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.

9. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (Expr.H&L) Department vide their U.O.Note No.1026/142/A4/SMPC-I/2010, dated:25.11.2010.

10. The Member Secretary, Andhra Pradesh State Legal Services Authority is requested to take further necessary action in the matter.
